Samir Alamad

Samir has vast and extensive knowledge of Sharia law and is experienced in its applications in Islamic banking and finance. Samir is a member of the Accounting and Auditing Organisation for Islamic Financial Institutions (AAOIFI) and he is a Certified Sharia Advisor and Auditor (CSAA) by AAOIFI.

Samir obtained an MA degree in Islamic Banking Finance and Management from Loughborough University. He holds a Post-Graduate Diploma and BA in Islamic Studies from leading universities in Damascus.

He advises and audits the Bank as an internal representative of the Bank's Sharia Supervisory Committee (SSC). He also develops new products and delivers regular Sharia compliance training to the Bank's staff and external partners.

Publications

'Islamic Banking' Counsel Magazine, November 2008.

'Islamic Banking set to grow in the UK' Adefro - April 2008

'The Concept of Riba' and 'Islamic Financial Instruments', Islamic Finance News Magazine 4 issues April, May, and September 2006.

Media and Lectures

- ⇒ The Debate, France 24 Television, November and December 2009.
- ⇒ 'How Sharia-compliant is Islamic banking?', BBC online, December 2009.
- ⇒ Islam UK, BBC World and BBC News September 2009.
- ⇒ Islam and Life, Press TV, August 2009.
- ⇒ Islamic Finance Q & A, Channel S, July 2009.
- ⇒ Business Hour, Al Arabiya Channel, July 2008.
- ⇒ Unity FM Radio, August and November 2009.
- ⇒ Islamic Financial Techniques and its Applications in Islamic Banking, ICMA Centre, Business School, University of Reading, March, 2010.
- ⇒ The Implementation of Islamic Finance Instruments, MBA Business School, Birmingham University, Jan, 2009.
- ⇒ Introduction to Islamic Banking . Warwick University, November, 2008
- ⇒ Introduction to Islamic Bank of Britain and Islamic Finance, Sheffield Hallam University, October, 2008.

Languages

Arabic and English